We've been working on getting our department on the GETS platform and GMIPS is doing nothing but slowing us down! They are making a difficult job impossible!

What the hell? I've been asking for a promotion for months because I DESERVE IT! I think my terrible boss just hates me.

We has a birthday party in my department and it was so fun. We went "old school" with pin the tail on the donkey, and streamers. Such a great place to come to work!

We had a great discussion with the Project managers @GMIPS today. I really think they can help us optimize our operations!

@GMIPS What, you can't answer your phone? Or return a message? You don't even have VOICEMAIL for the office. What a joke!

Our metrics tell us that our program has increased transition and cost savings! I feel so great that we are making a difference.
